

What We Do

Welcome to College Path Advising. We are here to help students and their families navigate the path to college. We work with high schoolers, transfer students, and adults to help them get where they want to go. It is not about getting into the best school but getting in the best school for your student and family. The best fit includes price, opportunities, academics, and social involvement.

Who We Are

Jen Miller-Hogg is a private college admissions advisor located in Holly Springs, NC and owner of College Path Advising. She has been working with students, parents, faculty, and staff for over 15 years. She has worked at Sarah Lawrence College, the University of Florida, California College of the Arts, John F. Kennedy University, and Meredith College. Jen graduated from the University of Southern California with a bachelor's degree in English and a master's degree in Student Personnel Administration in High Education from New York University. She has had the privilege of helping hundreds of students and parents find the right school for them. Jen's own passion is to connect students to what is next for them and aid them on their journey.

Professional Services and Fees

Initial Consultation: Approximately ½ Hour & No Charge

This first meeting is to give the family an opportunity to determine if College Path Advising is right for them. The first meeting will involve an introduction of the Independent Educational Consultant (Consultant) working with the family. The Consultant will make a presentation of service options and costs. The Consultant will present the contract for the family to consider.

Second Meeting - In-depth interview with student and family Approximately 1-2 hours

After a plan has been selected and the contract signed, a second meeting will be scheduled. The second meeting is an opportunity for the Consultant to get to know the student and family better. Both the parent(s)/guardian(s) and student will be asked to complete a questionnaire at least 24 hours prior to the meeting for the consultant to review. The copies of the student's unofficial transcript and any test scores (PSAT, SAT, ACT) will be given to the Consultant.

High School Comprehensive Consulting Package: Cost $950 (value of $2100) and understand by check the boxes I am agreeing to the following:

- Schedule Appointments and attend (rescheduling is fine if done 24 hours prior to appointment. Student must schedule appointments especially when completing applications)
- During the essay and application period, students are expected to have 1-2 appointments a week. Failure to schedule these and attend may result in applications being late and/or miss opportunities for merit aid.
- Consultant may impose a missed appointment or rescheduling fee if rescheduling occurs less than 24hrs prior to appointment. Rescheduling/missed appointments more than 1 time with less than 24 hours notice will result in a $20 fee. By not rescheduling prior to 24hrs, you are taking an appointment time another student may want.
- Completing and submitting applications
- Remain in communication with the Consultant as to status and progression in the process
- Notifying schools to applied to of intention to attend or not to attend
- Timely payment of fees
- Provide Consultant required paperwork as requested (including (but not limited to) student's transcript, test scores, essay and applications)
- Provide Consultant with any information that may impact the student's ability to attend college (including (but not limited to) disciplinary issues at school, arrest records, convictions, or any other important information)
- Scholarships - students may be provided with scholarship information and are welcome to submit applications for the consultant to review. The consultant will not demand scholarships to be done. Applying to scholarships is in the hands of the student.

Please know any violation of these responsibilities will void this contract and a loss of any payments.
